WALKING THROUGH MARK:
an Adult Sunday School Elective

Do you love stories? Do you have memories of hearing stories from your parents, teachers, grandparents? Do you know the gospel of Mark? Yes? No? Pastor and scholar Philip Ruge-Jones does! Each week we will watch this trained biblical storyteller share a portion of Mark's narrative from memory. Whether you are familiar with the gospel of Mark or not, this presentation is dramatic and accessible. Watching it in a group setting will allow us to discuss how this oldest and shortest gospel story impacts our lives today, centuries after its original telling. Join us in the Parlor at either 9:15AM or 10:30AM on Sundays April 22 through May 13 so that we can walk through Mark together!

THANK YOU!!

A heartfelt thank you for the cards, calls, but especially the prayers during my recent surgery and rehabilitation. Your Christian concern was greatly appreciated.
